So, this past may we kicked off our Reaper Summer Fun tour. Now, even though it started in May, which is still spring, and the first show was Reaper Con, and we didn't even have to leave our building, we still consider that the beginning of our "tour". And some people may not consider three shows a tour at all. But I digress.

Reaper Con is a blast. Lots of dedicated miniatures painters and hobbyists (holla!) descend on the Reaper HQ in Denton for four days of intense miniaturization. Painting, gaming, elbow-rubbing, eating...all that fun stuff. If you're into miniatures, then you should definitely give it a go next year in May. Mark your calendar now. Now!

Next stop on the tour is Origins in Columbus, Ohio. Origins is a great show, and while it may now pull in the crowds like it used to, the attendees and exhibitors at the show still love their hobby. Columbus is a great city with a cool college vibe, and it has one of America's best zoos. And don't get me started on the North Market. Man, that place is killer! Tons of great food choices, and the buckeyes are sinful. However, one must travel cautiously if wandering the streets of Columbus late at night. Just ask our production manager Matt Clark if you ever meet him. On second thought, if you're easily offended, please don't ask him.

Gen Con in Indianapolis is the third major stop on the Summer Fun tour. I don't know what to say about the greatness of Gen Con that hasn't already been said about a bajillion times. This show is a ton of fun with lots to see and do. The people are great, and like Columbus, the city of Indianapolis is a cool place to visit too. Gen Con is sort of the high point of the Summer Fun tour.

And while all the trappings that go on with these shows is a huge draw, the main reason I like attending summer conventions is the people I meet and old friends that I get to spend time with. That's what makes going to these shows worthwhile.

Ugh, I think I just threw up in my mouth a little bit. No wonder I couldn't hold down my job at Hallmark.

See you next year on the Reaper Summer Fun Tour!

Reaper Miniatures is here for people who love gaming. Our catalog is aimed at those with a love of miniatures, and a passion for gaming. Our goal is to stroke our egos, and at the same time be innovative in the gaming industry. We love to have fun, create new things, push ourselves, make great figures, and embarrass other companies with how well we do what we do!

Reaper Miniatures welcomes home their adopted unit!

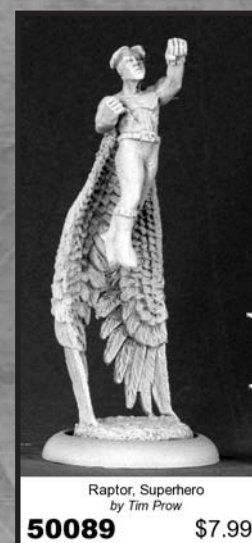

Andrew Littel and his Unit, Alpha Company, 2nd Battalion, 7th Cavalry Regiment "Gary Owen", 1st Cavalry Division of the US Army is safe and back home in Fort Hood, Texas. "The Arrowheads" served a very successful rotation in IRAQ!

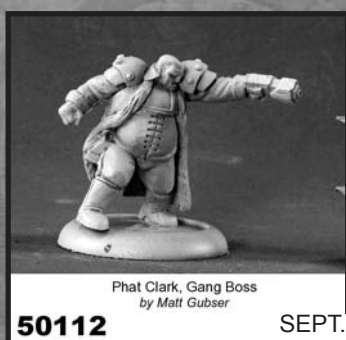

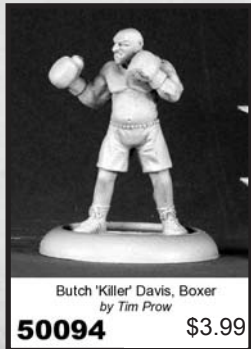

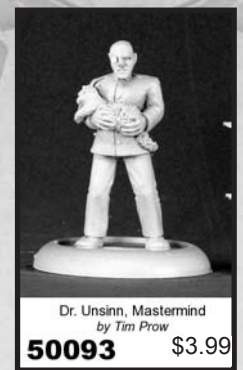

Reaper sent care packages throughout the year in support of "our boys". In a letter to Reaper Andrew described their mission as "To deter and malign Iranian influence in Iraq" and "Together with American Special Forces/SEALS and Iraqi Security Forces, we have put a significant strain on Iranian operatives smuggling IED's and weapons to use against Coalition Forces." Be sure to thank a Veteran.

Because of their sacrifices, we enjoy our Freedom!

Echidnox!

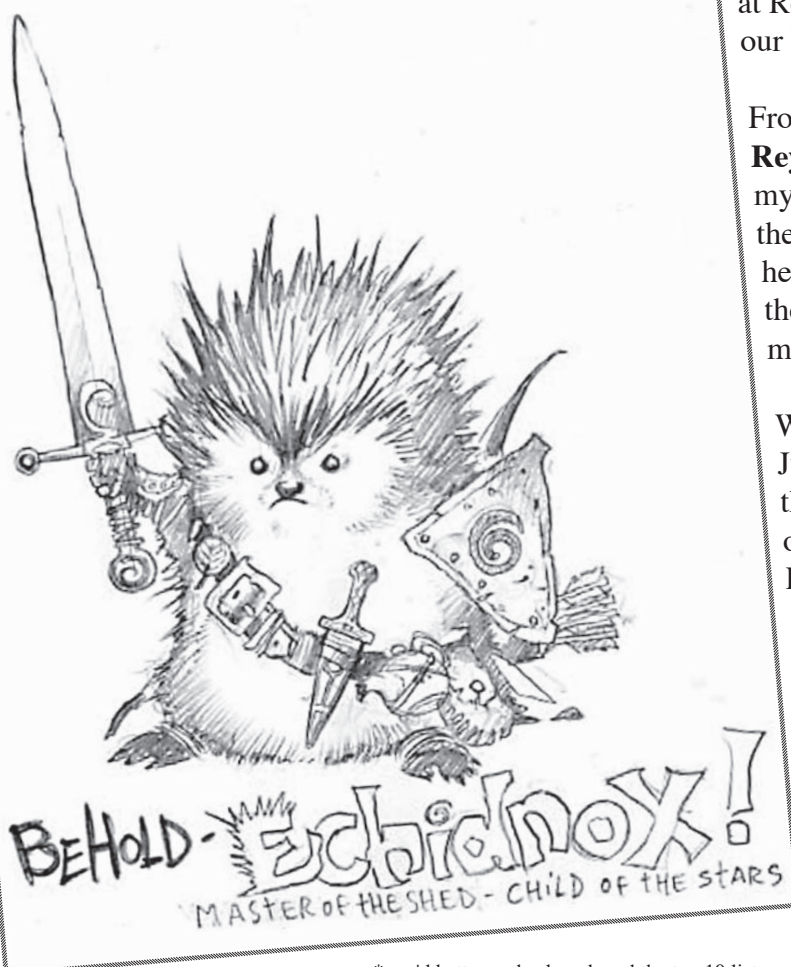

This little fellow has worked his way into our hearts here at Reaper Miniatures - and why shouldn't he? He controls our bummets*!

From the fevered mind of fan-favorite artist Wayne Reynolds(www.waynereynolds.com) comes the mysterious being known as Echidnox! As leader of the renowned Crittus League of Justice and Caeke, the hedgehog Echidnox seeks to protect the weak, defeat the evil of the dragon Pentimus and his Chodling minions, and to enjoy a tasty morsel from time to time.

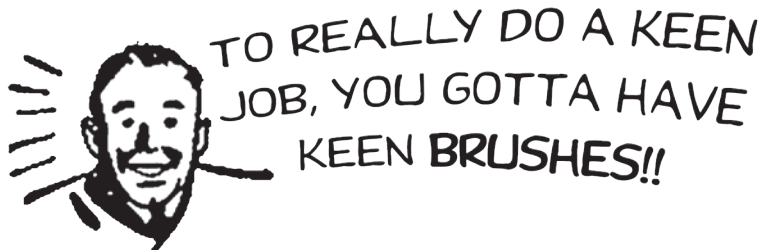

We'll be introducing the rest of the Crittus League of Justice and Caeke very soon (we don't want to spook them). But for now, you can own your very own copy of Echidnox beginning August 1st! Wayne has given Reaper permission to sell castings of this wonderful character sculpted by Jason Wiebe.

And to make things even better, Reaper and Wayne have decided to donate all profit to Child's Play (www.childsplaycharity.org). Just think, you'll be owning a copy of Echidnox AND helping sick children. Nothing could be better!

Echidnox arrives on August first! Help us help Echidnox make the world a better place for Justice, Caeke, and Children!

Hush-hush
development
gossip

Apparently the crew here thinks they can actually hide something from me. HA! A little stealthy investigating is all it takes! Apparently Reaper is developing a new brand and miniatures line. The project name is Coach Works, and I bet we see the line carry the same name. The project centers around the release of several sculpted 54mm and larger historical models including large busts. Using award winning sculptors like Anders Heinz, Reaper is expecting to make serious entry into the historical model market!

P-65 HEAVY METAL

P-65: the metal formula that made Reaper famous!! It's a blend of white metals designed to capture every subtle detail as well as allow for maximum metal flexibility for straightening and posing. Bringing this metal formula back into production is a big step for us so we felt it only appropriate to name the new line P-65 in honor of its heritage.

P-65 is a lead based alloy similar to 60% lead - 40% tin solder and is the perfect mix to cast miniatures in. The P-65 miniature line is designed specifically for the adult modeler and is being released to give them a choice in how they spend their hobby dollars.
